A NEW COMPASS.

Since the introduction of iron vessels, a great difficulty has been experienced by navigators in avoiding the local attractions which have made the compass to some extent uncertain and insecure, and the interest of the public has been awakened to the necessity of providing some remedies against the evil. Among others who have turned their attention to the subject is Mr. Samuel Custer, of Roanoke county, Virginia, who is the inventor of a compass which is styled an automatic registering marine compass, and which he claims to fulfil the grand desideratum of navigation, in furnishing a needle which does not deviate from the magnetic meridian under the influence of local attraction, whether that attraction results from iron in the construction of the ship, or iron in the cargo, or any other source of local attraction. It professes to do four things: 1. To show the presence of a local attraction, (which no other compass does;) 2. To show the direction of the local attraction; 3. To show the extent of the local attraction; 4. To indicate, under all circumstances, the magnetic meridian as truly as does any other compass when under no local influence. This compass is entirely different in construction from any other compass hitherto used. It is patented, and therefore a slight description of its construction can be given, viz:

It consists of three systems of magnetized needles, arranged in different horizontal places. The upper system is composed of two magnetized bars, connected with a graduated card, like an ordinary compass. The card needles are attached to an axle.—The two lower systems of magnetized needles are attached also to an axle—both to the same axle. The lowest system consists of about a dozen magnetized bars, arranged (with similar plies) in the same direction, and attached to a perpendicular (graduated) rod. The middle system of needles consists of two magnetized bars attached also to this perpendicular rod, and slides up and down this rod. When placed on board of an iron ship, for example, the middle system of needles is adjusted at a point on the rod which repels the upper needle back to the magnetic meridian. It is only necessary to adjust this middle system of needles with reference to the local attraction existing on board of that particular ship. No change in the direction of the ship makes any difference in the pointing of the upper needle, whilst the lower systems—which have a graduated card attached to the upper end of the axle to which they are attached, which card indicates the movements of the two lower systems of needles—traverse like an ordinary compass.

The compass and its operations were exhibited yesterday in an excursion of a number of gentlemen down the river in the United States revenue cutter James Guthrie, Capt. Hunter. The compass was subjected to tests which seemed to those present to establish what has been claimed for it. It is said to be the intention of the inventor to seek a trial of it by the United States naval authorities at Annapolis, which would seem to be the most satisfactory means of demonstrating its merits. The object which it claims to have accomplished is a great desideratum, second only in importance to the invention of the compass itself.

An important truth has seldom been stated more tersely than Mr. Bowles hit the real error of the press, and the precise character of the average libel suit, in his letter to Gov. Bullock and other Boston notables in reply to their tender of a public dinner. "My own observation," says Mr. Bowles, "is that the press rarely does injustice to a thoroughly honest man or cause. It may be deceived with regard to a private individual, and misrepresent him for a time; but, with reference to public men and measures, its knowledge is more intimate and complete than that of any other agency possibly can be, and I know that it withholds unjustly to the public one hundred times where it speaks wrongly once of the individual. Certainly, nine out of ten of all libel suits against the press, are brought by adventurers, and speculators, and scoundrels, whose contrivances to rob the public have been exposed." There never was a truer saying. We have our own share of libel suits, which we endure like the other discomforts that the discharge of duty brings; but we are conscious of having done wrong when we have failed to expose an evil-doer far oftener than when, because of an exposure, we have been held to answer in the courts, at the suit of some characterless adventurer who claims that we have done his character a hundred thousand dollars worth of damage by telling the truth about him. Newspapers are of course liable to many mistakes, but we speak from a wide experience in saying that the mistakes as to persons are quite as likely to be those of suppression as of utterance.—N. Y. Tribune.

LEE'S MISERABLES.—In a clever article on the reported joke that Grant would not appoint Mr. Davis as Secretary of War, the Chicago Times says:

"Jeff. Davis is, to-day, the superior in brains, and the peer in genuine loyalty, of three-fourths of the politicans of the dominant party. His main superiority consists in the fact that, while he labored four years to dismember the Union, the same thing was done in two years by the Radical loyalists who controlled federal legislation. In truth, Grant might select a good many South-rn men who would be more unflinching in their devotion to the Union, more economical in the management of the national expenditures, more to be trusted in council, braver in action, than a majority of the fanatics, who, to day, legislate on'y for party, who are filled with a causeless hatred against the South, and who are monthly plunging the nation deeper in debt and in financial difficulty. Who is there of good, sound sense, and possessed by a sincere desire for the interests of the whole country, who will doubt, even for a moment, that Robert E. Lee, as a gentleman, a man of brains, and of loyal devotion to the Union, is immeasurably the superior of three fourths of the blatant demagogues, in Congress and out of it, who hate the South with a vindictiveness unparalleled in civilization? General Grant himself will, we doubt not, without the slightest hesitation, make oath to the assertion that Lee is a better man, in every respect, than Butler, Phillips, Chandler or any dozen of the leading spirits of his own party."

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE, ... Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D. Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid. This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 07, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, JANUARY 11, 1869.

DIGEST OF NEWS.

Gold closed in New York, Saturday evening, at 1.35¼@1.35½

Cotton was quoted at 28¼.

North Carolina Bonds: Old 64½, New 61½@62

The "disabilities" of Hon. S. F. Phillips and R. W. Best, Esq., have been removed by Congress.

The "Governor's" paper announces that the "Trustees of the University" have determined to establish a branch of the institution for the benefit of the negroes. We presume that "Prof." Brewer will be transferred to the "branch."

The full Conservative Municipal ticket was elected in Asheville on the 1st inst. Thos. D. Johnston, Esq., is Mayor.

The Asheville News announces that Dr. McDowell, one of the contractors on the Eastern Division of the Western N. C. Railroad, threw the "first dirt" on this side of the mountains on Wednesday, the 31st ult., and that other contractors are preparing to commence work on the Road, in Buncombe County, in a few days.

An audacious correspondent of the New York World pretends to give a summary of General Grant's opinions of public men. Thus, he says Washburne is a strictly honest man; Fessenden, the ablest statesman in the Senate; Sumner, a finished orator who would not have been chosen by any other State but Massachusetts; Phillips is not accredited with any great honesty of purpose; Butler is not so bad as he is said to be; McClellan is an able soldier, a good citizen, and a pure man; Morgan, a mere bag of dollars; Rawlins is a man of the very highest order of intellect; Greeley, a great exaggerater, but a true man; Beecher would be a better preacher if he were less a politician, and a better politician if he were less a preacher; Dana (C. A.) is susceptible to flattery; Bennett has made his paper famous by making it infamous; Raymond is a Jumping Jack; Seward possesses very great ability, but very little principle; Weed is a corrupt politician; Logan wears the mantle of Stephen A. Douglas. The General is said to be in favor of a general amnesty, and to admit what he calls the inevitable necessity of negro suffrage.

The average price of gold, at the close of the fourth year of "peace," is higher than the average price of gold at the close of the second year of the war. Of such is the kingdom of Radicalism!

Senator Henry Wilson, at a Christian Temperance Convention, held at the "Hub" the other day, said that "during the last ten years he had traveled ten thousand miles, but he had nowhere seen so much drunkenness as in Massachusetts." Golly, pious Massachusetts!

Christmas was settling day in Oglethorpe Co., Georgia, between the planters and negro laborers. The negroes cleared for the year's work from $100 to $150, all of which, it is said, in an hour after it was paid, was spent in the nearest store for every imaginable article, from a flute or melodeon to a yard of osnaburgs, or a pair of breeches.

John H. Surratt's case has been dismissed by the Washington Grand Jury, on the ground that he was included in the recent amnesty proclamation of the President.

The London Times thinks that the year ends with the most "precarious peace" the world ever saw. Not only in Europe is peace precarious, but judging from what is transpiring in Arkansas, Georgia and Virginia, it is "precarious" here. Perhaps that was the kind of peace that was meant all the while they were saying "let us have" it.

The chaplain of Auburn prison, New York, won't preach to the convicts any longer, because the State has a Democratic Governor. It is rumored that Collards is an applicant for the Chaplaincy of "our" Penitentiary, and will pray for anybody—"for a consideration."

More than seventy-five thousand dollars worth of real estate have been sold in Loudoun county, Va., within the past ten days.

The scene of operations of the recent negro disturbances in Virginia is the farm of General Henry A. Wise, lately ordered to be restored to him by the Government.

Colfax, at a New England dinner the other day, made, as usual, a spread-eagle speech. It was about American citizenship. What a blessed thing it is in Virginia, Mississippi, and Texas. It confers a great many privileges on the people of those states.

A desperado in Wisconsin recently cut to pieces two men, and was proceeding to carve a third when he was shot dead. All this at a festive ball. The name of the place thus honored is, appropriately, Battle Axe.

Hon. James A. Bayard, now serving out the Senator Riddle's term in the United States Senate, by appointment, will be re-elected to-morrow for the balance of the term, which expires on March 4th. For the full term following his son, Thomas F. Bayard, will probably be chosen.

Messengers have arrived at Washington with the vote of the Electoral Colleges of Vermont and Maryland, which were deposited with Mr. Wade. All the States have been heard from now, except those on the Pacific coast. The messenger for California started, but died at Panama of small pox contracted on the steamer. When he found he was about to die, he delivered his papers over to some friends with a power of attorney authorizing them to deliver them to Mr. Wade. There is no law making the power of attorney valid in this matter, and, as the case is unprecedented, it will probably require some action of Congress to place the vote of California legally in the hands of Mr. Wade. Nevada has not been heard from yet. The messenger from Oregon is reported snowed up in the Rocky Mountains.

THE NATIONAL Intelligencer asks the following pertinent questions: Who can frame a better Constitution than the Constitution of the United States? Are not checks and balances better than oligarchy? Is it not wiser to trust written law than to trust the fluctuating and mad winds of Party? Are we not safer with the independent functions of an unimpaired Presidential office and Judiciary than we should be under the consuming and despotic will of a Directory? Are not the inspiring rights of the States so many safeguards of the Republic? Are not these the inspirations of patriotism, the centrifugal tendencies of our great machine, so essential as against possible absolutism? Is not free speech, is not free thought, better and more to be encouraged than slavish fear and mean submission to the will of a many-headed tyrant?

"AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR A SYSTEM OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION," &c., &c.

This act, printed by order of the Legislature, is before us, in the shape of a small pamphlet, or book, of forty two pages. "Prepared by the Superintendent of Public Instruction" is prominently paraded at the head of the bill. W. W. Holden, D. A. Jenkins, H. J. Menninger, Henderson, Adams, W. M. Coleman, C. L. Harris, and S. S. Ashley, by the act, constitute the "Board of Education."

The book says that Pilgrim Ashley prepared the bill. It is well that he did so before his encounter with the Supreme Court, for that so exhausted the old man, that we have not laid eyes on him since.—John Brown and Harper's Ferry! but he fought well. The Court could do nothing with him. Except the Chief Justice, the whole Court are said to have quailed before old raw-head and bloody bones, and when the Court appealed to the people in the Legislature, then the spirit of old John Brown prevailed. Pilgrim had the victory. It is true that, like old John Brown, he was finally overpowered, but he was not subdued.

Say what you will, mankind love heroism; they love the brave. John Brown, John Ragland, Pilgrim Ashley and Marshal Ney have given us as high examples as history affords of heroism and courage. John Brown, with seventeen men—two of them free niggers—seizing upon the arsenal at Harper's Ferry, in the very presence of Gen. Scott, and the Army and Navy of the United States, was heroism which every man must admire, though every good man must condemn. Brother Pepper, let us sing "Old John Brown's soul is marching on!"

On a different theatre, but alike in moral courage, was the act and conduct of Ashley, the Pilgrim. A stranger from Cape Cod, and as much a stranger to the people of North Carolina as was John Brown to the people of Virginia, he enters our Capitol, and plants himself in the room, not by courtesy, but by law, dedicated to Justice and the Supreme Court. The Court kindly, but formally, by note, asked the Pilgrim to allow them to sit in their own room. The Pilgrim refused. The Court, in column, and with courage, as we have before described, marched in, showing heavy "umbrels" and sharp pointed steel. Five Judges, the Clerk and the Grand Marshal of the Court—the two last armed cap a pie—confront the lion hearted Pilgrim. The Court, vanquished, retire and call for the people of the House. They come, 73 in number, on the second day of the fight, just like Buell did to the rescue of Grant at Shiloh. They come in time to save the Court.—Ashley went down, but, never mind, old hero! you fought the courageous fight. The Court may hate you for your insolence, but they feel a fearful admiration for your heroism.

Hark! Pilgrim, Hark! Heard you not, as you fell, the agonized voice of the carpet baggers? Oh! how they shriek, like freedom, "when Kosciusko fell." From the Rio Grande to the Potomac, their wailing is heard. In Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, Florida, and old Virginia, (out of the Union,) the mournful intelligence of your fall will carry sadness to every carpet-bag heart. Brother Pepper! this is a mournful occurrence, sad and unfortunate as the first great battle of Manassas, but it was so heroically fought on the carpet bag side!—Let us sing again "old John Brown's spirit is marching on," while carpet bag Ashley is proud of the laurels he won, in the Capitol, over the Court!

But, really, to the book of forty two pages: Who ever reads it for something new, original, striking or startling will be disappointed. There is, it is true, rather a novel and startling speculation in Theology, and a dissertation on swamp lands and the government of children, eight years old. As to the Pilgrim being the author of the bill, we are disposed to doubt it. He is no more the author of it than Senator Burns, of Chatham, is the author of the Penitentiary Bill. He (Senator Burns) never put that clause in allowing Cebe Harris and the Committee to purchase 8,000 acres of land, much of it as poor as Lassiter's, that was sold to Gen. Littlefield. No, we say it never entered Mr. Burns' brain to do that. It was suggested. We think Gen. Littlefield and one of his friends knew such a clause would be in the bill before Mr. Burns did. So, there are some things in the Pilgrim's bill, or book, of forty two pages, which never entered his brain, except by suggestion.

Now Section 104 of the book is clearly his. It is from Plymouth Rock. It reads so: "The school authorities of any City, Town or Township may, when they shall deem it expedient, establish a separate school or schools for the instruction of children and youth of African descent," &c.

Section 124 seems to be much like that clause in the Penitentiary bill, allowing C. L. Harris and the Committee to buy land. It reads thus, substantially: The Superintendent shall report to the Governor annually, &c. * * * The Governor shall transmit such report, &c. * * * The Secretary of State shall bind 500 copies and deliver them to the Superintendent, who shall deposit twenty copies in the Library of Public Instruction, furnish one copy to the Commissioners of each county, one copy to each University, College and Normal School in the State. The remaining copies shall be distributed, one to the State Library of each State and Territory, (this is a saving clause for Old Virginia, out of the Union,) and the others to such cities, Institutions of learning and persons, as he may deem proper. The Legislature shall order at least five thousand pamphlet copies to be furnished the Superintendent, who shall forward one copy to each District Library, and shall distribute the remainder, as he may deem advisable, to school officers and other persons.

If Gen. Littlefield will establish a Book-binding establishment with the Standard office, under this clause, without the aid of Judge Brooks, the Standard office can be supported.

Section 9 contains the Swamp Land speculation. "The Board (says this section) shall be invested with full power to adopt all necessary ways and means for causing so much of the swamp lands to be surveyed, as they may think capable of being reclaimed, and, after they shall be surveyed, to contract for construction of canals, ditches and other works necessary for the purpose of reclaiming the same, upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Board; the contractor giving bond with security for the faithful performance of the agreement."

Shade of the Penitentiary! what are you doing in this bill, "prepared by the Superintendent of Public Instruction?"

Gov. Holden, Cebe Harris, D. A. Jenkins, H. J. Menninger, S. S. Ashley, Hendrson Adams and W. M. Coleman should be kept out of the land and bond business, after the sale of the North Carolina Railroad bonds at 65, and the purchase of 8,000 acres of "squirrel and kildee land" at one hundred thousand dollars for a Penitentiary site!

We have just heard of the election of the Rev. S. N. Whitson, alias Collards, as City Collector, and our pen refuses further comment, for the present, upon the theological speculations of the Pilgrim's book, or the bill itself, so-called.

Providence and our pen permitting, we will recur to the subject in a day or two,—perhaps to-morrow.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, Jan. 9, 1869.

House called to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of Chatham, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Hinnant, from the Committee on Enrolment, reported the bill to amend the charter of the city of Wilmington as being correctly enrolled. It was signed by the Speaker and transmitted to the Senate.

Leaves of absence were granted to Messrs. French and Renfrow.

Mr. Downing presented a memorial from his county Commissioners. Referred.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. Ingram: A resolution that, from and after Monday next, this House shall hold night sessions. Lies over.

By Mr. Malone: A bill declaring it a misdemeanor for county officers to speculate in county claims. Referred.

By Mr. Hodnett: A bill to amend title 20, Civil Code of Procedure, and to satisfy stays of executions, granted by Justices of the Peace, in certain cases.

Mr. H. said that he had called the attention of the Code Commissioners to this matter, and, at his request, they had prepared this bill. They thought with him, that the bill should pass at once; therefore, he moved to suspend the rules and put the bill on its several readings.

Mr. Vest opposed the suspension of the rules. He thought all action on such bills should be postponed until they should see what the Supreme Court decides in regard to the Homestead.

Mr. Hodnett again urged the importance of the bill. He thought something should be done, at once, to prevent the sacrifice of the property of the people. Their property was being levied upon and sold every day for a mere song, &c.

The question recurred upon the motion to suspend the rules, which, being put to a vote, was carried, and the bill passed its several readings; when,

Mr. Estes moved to print and refer to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to report on Tuesday next.

Mr. Malone said, in explanation of the bill, that it was merely a copy of the old stay law in regard to this matter.

After a lengthy debate, the motion to refer prevailed by a vote of yeas 71, nays 20.

Resolution asking our Representatives and Senators in Congress to use their influence to have all the old mail routes re-opened and revived;

Bill amending the charter of the city of Wilmington;

Resolution instructing the Code Commissioners to prepare and report compilation of charters, acts, &c.

They were ordered to be enrolled.

Mr. Estes presented the claim of Hardie Reynolds, which was referred to the appropriate Committee.

By Mr. Durham: A bill to amend an ordinance, entitled "an ordinance to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and rules of pleading therein, and ordinances and acts amendatory thereof." Referred.

By Mr. Robinson: A resolution giving the Superintendent of Public Instruction the West room, third story, of the Capitol, lately occupied by the Supreme Court.

On motion, the rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Estes, the rules were suspended, and House bill No. 37 was taken up, ordered to be reprinted, and re-referred to the Finance Committee and made the Special order for Wednesday next, at 12 o'clock.

On motion of the same, the Revenue bill was made the special order for Wednesday next, at 1 o'clock, and every day thereafter, until disposed of.

VIRGINIA JUDGES—RECONSTRUCTION.—A Washington letter in the Baltimore Gazette says:

"Judge Harris and a number of other Virginia officials are here endeavoring to have their political disabilities removed before they shall have been removed themselves by military orders. A proposition is now pending to remove the political disabilities from all judges of Virginia—a measure deemed expedient to prevent confusion in the judicial proceedings of that State, and arrest the career of Judge Underwood in turning convicts loose upon the community."

THE EXTENSION OF SUFFRAGE IN TENNESSEE.—Nashville, Jan. 7.—In the lower branch of the Legislature to-day, Mr. Ryde introduced a bill providing for a State convention to amend the constitution so as to extend the right of suffrage to those who are not disfranchised. An animated debate on the bill is anticipated to-morrow.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Scheidam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however, only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.
UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.
DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

NEW YORK 53 CEDAR STREET, November 26, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification: that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully,
FRED. F. MAYER, Chemist.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, May 1.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR:—The want of pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes has been long felt by the profession, and thousands of lives have been sacrificed by the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe, owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits sold.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, including your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and from your long experience as a foreign importer, your Bottled Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the profession can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise,
We remain your obedient servants, imported and bottled by himself, expressly for medicinal use. Each bottle has his certificate of its purity.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Fine Coffees and Teas, Prime Factory Cheese, Nice Hams, Sides and Shoulders: Douglas Bell. Rock Spring School, Orange Co.,—H. M. Cates, A. M., Principal: Fifth session opens Jan. 20th., 1869.

THE NEW CITY COUNCIL.—This dignified body organized on Friday night, and re-elected the old Clerk, J. J. Christophers, Esq. Phil. Theim was appointed City Treasurer and Whitson Collector of Taxes. "What a fall, my countrymen!" Is that the best that can be done for Whitson, after ciousing him out of the Mayoralty and knocking him down at Republican Headquarters? Whitson made a poor drummer for the "Lost Cause" and "Wearing the Grey," but as he was "some" on collecting "collards," and other fragments, at the barbecue, he may do. We recollect that when a bet was proposed to Mr. Randolph, an unknown by-stander offered to hold "stakes." "But who," said Mr. Randolph, "will hold you?" We make no application,—not we.

THE THEATRE.—Quite a large crowd were delighted, on Saturday night, in Tucker Hall, with the repetition, by the Templeton Troupe, of the highly sensational play of "Under the Gaslight." The scenic arrangements were more complete than on the preceding evening, and the Railroad worked to perfection,—creating, as it thundered across the stage, a perfect whirl of excitement. The various characters were admirably sustained, and the Company presents, altogether, a fine array of talent. An attractive programme is presented for this evening,—the beautiful pay of Fanchon.

THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE.—This Hotel, under the splendid management of our friend Blair, keeps up its reputation as the best house in the South. This is the testimony of all who sojourn there, and a recent experience of his table warrants us in saying that it cannot be surpassed. The secret of Blair's popularity as a caterer is obvious. He goes on the maxin of quaint old Peter Pindar:

"The turnpike road to people's hearts, I find,
Lies thro' their throats, or I mistake mankind."

SUPREME COURT.—The argument in the Injunction case against the Public Treasurer and the Chatham Railroad Company was resumed before this tribunal, on Saturday. In the forenoon, Hons. Wm. H. Battle and Thomas Bragg and K. P. Battle, Esq., spoke for the Defence, followed by Hon. S. J. Person for the Plaintiff.

In the afternoon, Hons. S. F. Phillips and A. S. Merrimon continued the argument for the Defence, and Col. E. G. Haywood closed for the Plaintiff.

As might have been expected from such a brilliant array of talent, the whole argument, on either side, has been one of great ability.

We will publish the decision of the Court in this important matter as soon as rendered.

CURSES, like young chickens, come home to roost.

The engineer is often hoisted by his own petard.

Devices frequently return to plague the inventor; and

The Legislature has consigned Pilgrim Ashley to the identical "cock loft" which he, C. L. Harris, Menninger, Farris, Friday Jones and Gov. Holden fixed up for the Supreme Court.

IT IS REPORTED that Judge Dick said, in the recent meeting of lawyers, in the Senate Chamber, to consider "the Code," that until the Code was adopted, we had been "living under barbarian laws."

Now that we have those of a refined and cultivated people to govern us, and a "Psalmodist" to administer them, shan't we rise to the topmost of civilized nations?

Happy fate for us, who have lived to see this favored day! As we think of the past, and rejoice in the future, we may exclaim, as the Poet of old,

"Jan satis terris nivis atque diræ Grandinis misit pater;"

which, being freely translated, is that, having had snow and hail enough, we may now look for sunshine!

WE UNDERSTAND that a series of meetings of much interest have been held in the Baptist Church of this city, during the past week, and that Dr. William Royall, of Wake Forest College, will aid the pastor this week. Preaching may be expected every night, rain or no rain.

COMPANY SHOPS.—It is due to the Mayor elect of this place, who received a unanimous vote, at the late election, to say that the issue of "wet and dry" was not made except in the selection of Commissioners. It was understood that he did not favor the repeal of the law forbidding the sale of liquors at the "Shops."

THE "Governor," in his paper, (or Bro' Pepper,) speaking of President (ha ! ha ! ha ! —excuse us, but really we can't help from laughing,) Pool, of the University, (that was,) says of his former connection with that Institution:

"It is said that during the entire period of twelve years, as an instructor, he was never know to have a personal difficulty with any of his students, not to invoke the aid of the Faculty in the management of his classes, nor to cite any young gentlemen before the College authorities for a misdemeanor or impropriety in his recitation room."

Now, can't the Governor see that here is another case of what Dr. Johnson called "damning with praise?" A Tutor or Professor at the University, or any other School or College, who could go through twelve years, without citing "any young gentleman before the College authorities for misdemeanor, &c.," isn't fit for his place—that is manifest. You might as well talk of a Company Captain passing through the four years of war, without having to resort to discipline with his men.

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE FOR 1869.—The first edition of one hundred thousand of Vick's illustrated catalogue of seeds and guide in the flower garden is now published. It makes a work of one hundred pages, beautifully illustrated with about 150 fine wood engravings of flowers and vegetables, and an elegant colored plate, a bonquet of flowers. It is the most beautiful, as well as the most instructive floral guide published, giving plain and thorough directions for the culture of flowers and vegetables.

The Floral Guide is published for the benefit of Mr. Vick's customers, to whom it is sent free without application, but will be forwarded to all who apply, by mail, for ten cents, which it is well worth. Address James Vick, Rochester, N. Y.

THE LAND WE LOVE.—The following from the New Orleans Times we publish with pleasure. The Land We Love is the very best exponent of Southern literature and sentiment published. This is a high compliment, but well deserved:

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 10, 1868.

To the Editor of the New Orleans Times:—The Land We Love, published at Charlotte, North Carolina, and edited by Gen. D. H. Hill, of the late Confederate army, has claims upon our people as a home monthly, representing our own sentiments and feelings. Its contributors are all writers of recognized ability, who give us high a standard of literary excellence as can be found in the Northern periodicals, some of which are so often abusive of the people and customs of the South.

To the late Southern soldier, the Land We Love has peculiar attractions; it is the acknowledged organ of the late Confederate Army; it preserves the record of the heroism and devotion of our soldiery, and is now almost the only channel by which the truth of history can be vindicated. For these reasons, we, General officers of the late Confederate Army, do cordially commend this Southern enterprise to the favorable consideration of the people of the South.

The low price ($3 per annum,) puts the Magazine within the reach of those of reduced means, and it was made thus low to secure this object.

We remain yours, very truly,

RAILROAD MEETING IN STANLY

At a meeting of the citizens, called at Albemarle on the 1st inst., to express their sentiments with regard, to the proposed Railroad from Cheraw, S. C., to Salisbury, N. C., L. Green, Esq., was called to the Chair, and A. C. Freeman and W. H. Lilly were appointed Secretaries.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting in a few appropriate remarks.

On motion, a Committee of five, consisting of V. Manney, Elias Hurley, Eben Hearne, Daniel Freeman and Colonel E. W. Davis was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the object of the meeting.

The Committee retired and in a short time reported the following resolutions, viz:

WHEREAS, A charter has been granted, by the Legislature of North Carolina, to construct a Railroad from Cheraw, S. C., to Salisbury, N. C., by the way of Wadesboro' and Albemarle: And whereas, the citizens of Anson, Stanly and Rowan counties are exceedingly anxious to have said Road speedily built; Therefore

Be it Resolved, That we, the citizens along the proposed route, hereby pledge ourselves to give the right of way, should said Road pass over said lands.

Resolved further, That no enterprise has yet been conceived, involving the same amount of expense, which will yield a greater profit, bearing as it will the freight and passengers from the Northern and central portion of the State destined from any point between the cities of Wilmington, N. C., and Charleston, S. C. In view of the liberal patronage which it is sure to receive, we earnestly ask the Legislature of the State to lend a helping hand in order that said Road may be completed at an early day.

Resolved further, That we the people of the three counties, over which the proposed Road shall run, will not relax our efforts until said Road be completed, irrespective of assistance from other quarters.

Resolved further, That the members on the line of the proposed Road be requested to use their best efforts to secure the aid of the State in its construction.

Gen. A. J. Dargan, Elias Hurley and V. Manney addressed the meeting, urging the necessity of building the Road, and its advantages both to the County and State in developing the vast resources of the valley of the Yadkin and Pee Dee, and bringing into use the immense water power on these rivers. Our representatives and the other members along the proposed route were requested to use their best endeavors to secure State aid for the Road, in order that it might be built at as early a day as possible.

It was moved and carried that these proceedings be published in the Raleigh Sentinel, Standard and Old North State. The meeting then adjourned.

HON. HANNIBAL HAMLIN NOMINATED FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE.—Augusta, Me., January 7.—At a caucus of Republican members of both branches of the Legislature held this evening to nominate candidates for Senator, the whole number of votes cast were 149 and one blank. Seventy-five votes were given for Hannibal Hamlin and seventy-four for L. M. Morrill. The statutes of Maine declare that a blank vote is no vote. There is much excitement.

"GREAT EXPECTATIONS."

MR. WASHBURNE'S SPEECH IN THE HOUSE—A FORESHADOWING OF GRANT'S POLICY—A CHANGE OF RADICAL POLICY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—There was great interest manifested to day by all parties in the House of Representatives to hear the Hon. Elihu B. Washburne, as it was generally understood that he would speak by authority from General Grant; and the fact that he read from printed slips, pasted on sheets of foolscap, gave currency to the rumor. Mr. Washburne has never before been known to prepare a speech in advance, and rarely uses notes when addressing the House. The speech delivered to-day is said to have been submitted to and approved by the President elect as an authoritative foreshadowing of what his policy would be. Just prior to Mr. Washburne's rising to address the House, Attorney-General Evarts entered the Representative hall and held a short conference with him, which, from the bobbing of heads that followed, seemed to be mutually satisfactory.

The Republican members were very quickly gathered around Mr. Washburne's seat, while the Democrats sat in silent but attentive isolation on the opposite side of the hall. The first proposition announced was that a "new departure had to be taken" by the Radicals—the whole policy of the party had to be changed. This announcement caused an extraordinary opening of eyes and pricking up of ears. Schenck remarked to his colleague Garfield, "that, indeed, sounds as if speaking by authority."

After depicting the demoralizing effects of a bloated paper currency, Mr. Washburne ventured his second proposition, viz: the plundering of the public treasury by robbers engaged in contracts and the squandering of the public lands would have to cease. "Good!" exclaimed Mr. Brooks, of New York, and several other Democrats.—Mr. Washburne continued, and with his voice at its highest pitch announced that "Representatives must understand that they are but the servants of the people they represent, and are not to legislate for the benefit of themselves and the gamblers which crowd Washington." This is, indeed, plain talk, coming as it does from the President elect, who evidently intends that Congress shall understand from the very jump that it is but a co ordinate branch of the government, and must keep within its proper constitutional limits.

The Baltimore Sun says:

"The case of Miss Sue Murphy, of Decatur, Alabama, who asks the payment of seven thousand dollars for her house, destroyed by order of General Sherman, was again debated by the Senate Tuesday.—This claim is pressed with some ability by Mr. Howe, Chairman of the Claims Committee, on the ground that the petitioner is loyal. The Southern Senators are unanimous in favor of the measure, because it is one of numerous claims which would then be brought in from their section if the principle is once laid down. The leading men of the Senate, who will probably carry the majority with them, strongly oppose the opening of the door to these claims. It probably is true that there may be individual cases of severe hardship, but if it is once settled that the claims of "loyal citizens" in the South arising out of the rebellion are to be liquidated from the national treasury, it needs no prophet's tongue to tell that the drain that would be made on the treasury would ere long swamp all those magnificent resources which some of our patriotic orators so much delight to descant upon."

THE FINANCES—A REPUBLICAN CAUCUS. A very important caucus of Republican Senators was held yesterday morning in the ladies' reception room, some forty being present. Senator Anthony presided, and the financial question, to discuss which the caucus was held, was at once taken hold of. Senator Morton's bill was very freely commented upon, and apparently met with favor, though no positive expressions were made upon it. Senator Edmunds' resolution to pay the principal and interest of the 5 20's in gold was simply adverted to, not meeting with any favor, and will undoubtedly be defeated. The conference lasted over an hour, a number of the Senators expressing views much at variance, and no definite conclusion was arrived at. The caucus adjourned without any settled policy upon the question, and it may be that another will be held at no remote period, as the Senators are generally favorable to some positive action being taken at an early day.—Wash. Chronicle, 8th.

Assignee's Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

THE LAND BELONGING to Dr. M. T. Ponton will be offered at public sale, by his assignee in bankruptcy, on THURSDAY, the 14th of January next, at 11 o'clock A. M.

The sale will take place at the residence of Dr. Ponton, the land will be put up, without reserve, to the highest bidder, for CASH, and no postponement will be made.

The land contains about sixteen hundred acres, is situated near the town of Halifax, N. C, on Great and Little Quankey Creeks, and partly on the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

The soil is naturally free and fertile, but has been much reduced by bad tillage. There are large quantities of marl on some of the land, and all of it can be easily improved and made good Corn and Cotton land. Much of it is well adapted to truck farming, and nearly the whole of it is equal to any in America for the cultivation of the grape. To any person who desires to invest capital in "Grape Culture," no better opportunity can be offered.

The land will be sold in several separate tracts, in one of which there is the best mill site in Halifax county, affording an inexhaustible supply of water power, with building stone sufficient for the erection of dams and mills.

Dr. Ponton will take pleasure in guiding persons over the land, who may wish to inspect it with a view to purchase.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,943.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

MONDAY, JANUARY 11, 1869.

A MEMORY.

I see her yet, that dark-eyed one,
Whose bounding heart God folded up
In His as shuts when day is done,
Upon the elf the blossom's cup.
On many an hour He'll ope for me,
And as my lips did fondly greet her,
I blessed her as love's amulet—
Earth has no treasure dearer, sweeter.

The stars that look upon the hill,
And beckon from their homes at night,
Are soft and beautiful, yet still
Not equal to her eyes of light.
They have the liquid glow of earth,
The sweetness of a summer even,
As if some Angel at their birth
Had dipped them in the hues of Heaven.

They may not seem to others sweet,
Nor radiant with the beams above,
When first their soft, sad glances meet
The eyes of those not born of love;
Yet when on me their tender beams
Are turned beneath love's wide control,
Each soft, and orb of beauty seems
To look through me into my soul.

I see her now, that dark-eyed one,
Whose bounding heart God folded up
In His, as shuts, when day is done,
Upon the elf the blossom's cup.
Too late we met; the burning brain,
The aching heart alone can tell,
How filled our souls of death and pain
When came the last and word, Farewell.

RATHER GOOD.—We have often heard of remarkable cases of "absence of mind." Here is one equal to anything we have seen lately. The man was doubtless a very interesting head of the family:

"I say, cap'n," said a little keyed man, as he landed from the steamboat Peytona at Natchez. "I say, cap'n, this here ain't all?"

"That's all the baggage you brought on board, sir," replied the captain.

"Well, see now, I grant it's all O K according to list,—four boxes, three chests, two han-boxes, a portmanty, two hams—one part cut,—three ropes inyons, and a tea kettle; but you see, cap'n, I am dubersom, I feel there is something short. Though I have counted 'em nine times, and never took my eyes off 'em while on board, there's something not right, somehow."

"Well, stranger, the time is up; there is all I know of, so bring your wife and five children out of the cabin, and we are off."

"Them's 'em, darn it! them's 'em!—I know'd I'd forgot something."

INQUISITIVE.—All inquisitive children are not confined to "Harper's Drawer." A little three year old in this city, a few mornings since, stood by his mother's knee, looking his baby brother—a few months old—in the face. At length he inquired, "Mamma, did God make the baby?" "Yes, dear, was the reply. Touching one of the organs to which he referred, with his finger, he continued, "Did God put on his little ears?" "Certainly, my child." Waiting a minute, as though in a brown study or pondering some weighty problem, he again broke out, "Well I don't see why God couldn't put some more hair on his head, as well as put on his ears!"

A wonderful top has been invented in Lenox, Massachusetts. It will spin half an hour or more; make marbles, money, and other objects, spin around it, like satellites; it will make colored and gilt paper, silk or ribbons, assume the appearance of glass goblets; spiral rings painted on circular paper, and attached to the top, present the appearance of beautiful circles; finally, it will carry another top on its shoulders, spinning with itself, at full speed. This last "Yankee notion" is called the "Lenox Top.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.
